Florida State Highway #40 "Ocala to Ormond Beach"

Miles	ITEM	SUMMARY
0.0	View from highway - Photo - Florida's - Welcome highway sign	Welcome to Florida.
0.0	Junction of highway #301	City of Ocala, Florida. Named an 'All America City' in 1995, Ocala is the county seat, and has a present population of 46,453 making it the largest city in the county. Drive down Fort King Street in the Ocala historic district, and you will be impressed by the obvious care taken with the renovation and preservation of the area's homes. The Ocala Historic District, offers the opportunity to take a walking tour through stately neighborhoods of lovely Victorian homes. Fort King Street was named after the military post of Fort King, the site of which is within city limits. Fort King was built prior to the Second Seminole War of Florida (1835-1842) according to archaeologist Gary Ellis. Three substantive archaeological surveys have been conducted in the vicinity and the findings of these earlier studies led to a new study in 1993-94 identifying two distinct prehistoric components. The investigation of the history of Fort King is still ongoing with plans to offer the public a chance to learn more about life in those times.

Personal Road Trip Guide

10.3	Point of Information	Crossing the Ocklawaha River. The Ocklawaha River originates at the north end of Lake Griffin in Lake County. The upper reach is largely channelized but is in a natural condition for most of its length. Rodman Reservoir is a 16 mile impoundment lying between Highway 316 near Ft. McCoy to Highway 19 near Palatka. The river is again natural from the Rodman Dam to its confluence with the St. Johns River near Welaka.
10.9	Access to Campground R V Park	North side of highway.
11.2	Junction of county roadway # 314	Services gas & diesel, both sides of highway. North access to Community of Salt Spring, Florida. North access to Ocala National Forest Recreational Area. Camping can be divided into three classes based on the type of facilities offered and fees charged; developed campgrounds, primitive campsites and dispersed tent camping. Developed campgrounds provide a variety of amenities including; showers, restrooms, picnic tables, charcoal grills, fire rings, lantern holders, drinking water, sanitation facilities and trash receptacles. Primitive campsites provide very few if any of these amenities. Dispersed tent camping is for the adventurous that prefer no facilities at all and is permitted throughout the general forest area.

32.3	Junction of highway # 19	North to communities of Salt Springs, Palarka. North to Lake George Recreational Area. This lake is a 46,000-acre natural impoundment of the St. Johns River with extensive vegetation that provides an excellent habitat for fish. There are jetties located on the south end of the lake where the St. Johns River enters the lake. Most of the lake is less than 10 feet deep but a natural channel provides navigation for boats as large as oil barges. Largemouth bass anglers should be successful using live shiners and artificial baits fished near the outer edge of deeper eelgrass beds and pilings. Live shad and grass shrimp fished near the jetties when the river is flowing should produce catches of largemouth bass, sunshine bass and stripers. Cooling waters this quarter should bring success to black crappie (speckled perch) anglers fishing the sunken barge at the center bombing target and Willow Cove on the east shore. These cool waters should also bring more success to striper anglers, especially near the bombing targets and the jetties.
32.4	Lake County, Florida	Western county line. In the 1840s, Capt. Melton Haynes trekked through Central Florida to settle in the heart of Lake County. Lake County is known for its diverse landscape and terrain ranging from 0 to 315 feet above sea level. With rolling hills dotted by orange groves in the south to the pristine flora of 'Old Florida' in the north, the striking physical beauty of Lake County has captured the hearts and imagination of many. With an array of dynamic features that includes more than 500 lakes and rivers
33.2	Access to National Forest Wildcat Lake Recreation Area	South side of highway.
36.5	Access to community of Astor Park, Florida
36.7	Access to Campground	North side of highway.
36.8	Astor Park Cutoff Road	Access to Alexandor Springs Recreation Area. Large campground with numerous sites, each with plenty of room to spread out. Beautiful beach with swimming and SCUBA diving (one of the top SCUBA diving springs in the state). Site also features a one of the states top canoe runs, complete with canoe rentals and van rides for the return trip. Alexander Spring Run flows east trending approximately 8 river miles (13 km) until reaching the St. Johns River.
37.0	Junction of National Forest Roadway # 445a	South side of highway.
37.5	Ocala National Forest	Eastern boundary.
38.5	Community of Astor, Florida	Welcome to the Astor, located not far from the area's attractions such as Daytona Beach and Orlando. 'The Jewel of the St. John's River' Nestled among the trees of the Ocala National Forest and bordered by the St. Johns River on the east.

40.4	Volusia County, Florida	Western County Line. Situated on the east coast of Central Florida, their 47 miles of Atlantic Ocean beaches are a world class playground, with beachfront cities including Daytona Beach, Ormond Beach and New Smyrna Beach. The scenic St. Johns River, famed for its bass fishing, links magnificent parks with wildlife preserves along the County's western border. True Southern charm can be found in DeLand, the County seat. This unique city features an award-winning downtown filled with antique shops and quaint restaurants, surrounded by stately historic homes and buildings.
41.8	Lake George State Forest	Western boundary. Lake George State Forest is made up of three tracts of land which total 19,610 acres. This diverse forest is primarily comprised of slash pine, longleaf pine, bottomland hardwoods, and interspersed cypress and bay depressions. Lake George State Forest offers many recreation opportunities. Bluffton Recreation Area is located on the St. Johns River and offers fishing, picnicking, and a 3/4 mile interpretive nature trail. While there is no boat ramp available, canoes and small jon boats may be launched from the bank. Fishing is also available at Jenkins Pond.
45.8	Lake George State Forest	Eastern boundary.
46.0	Junction of highway # 17	Community of Barberville, Florida. South to communities of DeLeon Springs, Florida, DeLand, Deltona, South to DeLeon Springs State Recreation Area. De Leon Springs State Park provides access to Lake Woodruff National Wildlife Refuge, where canoeists can explore 18,000 acres of lakes, creeks and marshes.  Canoe, kayak and paddleboat rentals are available in the park throughout the year. The De Leon Springs State Park is contiguous to the Woodruff National Wildlife Refuge. The Refuge area is easily accessed by water and provides excellent birding and fishing opportunities. Paddleboats can be rented by the half hour and hour. Canoes and kayaks are available. DeLeon Springs offers a half mile paved nature trail which is also accessible. This trail wander through a flood plain hammock with many hardwoods, pine and undergrowth scrubs native to this area. Various wildlife may be seen also.
46.0	Junction of highway # 17	Services fuel, gas diesel, north of highway. North to communities of Pierson, Seville, Crescent City. North to Crescent Lake Recreation Area. This 15,960-acre lake is a tributary of the St. Johns River. Public access to Crescent Lake can be obtained on the west shore off of Highway 17 in Crescent City.
